All Saints Day Letter

Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands.

They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

Revelation 7:9-10

John, the writer of the Book of Revelation, describes a vision of many, many people gathered together to praise God forever! So many people are gathered until no human can count them all! All the people who are the children of God from all throughout history and forever more make up this huge, incredible crowd. All of us can be in that huge number! All Saints Day is that time in the church when we remember those who have taught us about God, Jesus, and the church. We even remember those who taught the people who taught us—and even the people who taught the people who taught the people who taught and are teaching us about God, Jesus, and the church. It can go on and on...getting to a number that we might not be able to count.

Write a letter to a person who has taught you about God, Jesus, and the church, thanking them. It may be a parent, grandparent, pastor, Church School teacher, YPD director, neighbor. Or draw them a picture that shows your thanks. Wish them a blessed All Saints Day.
